AP

Assassin's lair becomes JFK memorial

A photographer snaps Lindalyn Adams, chairwoman of the Dallas County Historical Society, during preview of the society's $1.3 million JFK memorial on the sixth floor of the former Texas School Book Depository. The place from which Lee Harvey Oswald fired now houses an exhibit of 350 photos, 30 original artifacts, an audio tour and six films.